SUNDAY READINGS

Epistle—

1 Corinthians 2:11-16

<sup>11</sup> Among human beings, who knows what pertains to a person except the spirit of the person that is within? Similarly, no one knows what pertains to God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup> We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the things freely given us by God. <sup>13</sup> And we speak about them not with words taught by human wisdom, but with words taught by the Spirit, describing spiritual realities in spiritual terms.<sup>[a]</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Now the natural person<sup>[b]</sup> does not accept what pertains to the Spirit of God, for to him it is foolishness, and he cannot understand it, because it is judged spiritually. <sup>15</sup> The spiritual person, however, can judge everything but is not subject to judgment<sup>[c]</sup> by anyone.

<sup>16</sup> For “who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to counsel him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

Gospel—Luke 10:21-24

<sup>21</sup> At that very moment he rejoiced [in] the holy Spirit and said, “I give you praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike.<sup>[a]</sup> Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. <sup>22</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.”

<sup>23</sup> Turning to the disciples in private he said, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. <sup>24</sup> For I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.”
